

On the 326-mile Ohio to Erie Trail, there are usually one or more construction projects which trail travelers may need to navigate around. Be ready for planned closures due to construction and unplanned closures due to high water and down trees. As soon as we know about these, we put these on our ALERTS page and on our interactive map.

KNOWN ALERTS (current as of February 6, 2024):

Trail	Impacts	GPS	Dates	Community
Little Miami Scenic Trail	Replacing the trail bridge over O'Bannon Creek north of Nisbet Park. There is no designated detour.	39.270489, -84.257295	Oct. 1, 2023 thru May 2024.	Loveland, Warren, Clermont, Hamilton Counties
Little Miami Scenic Trail	Replacing US42 bridge, short-term closures only with 1 week notice	39.602731, -84.009428	Feb '24 for 1.5 years	Spring Valley, Greene County
Scioto Greenway Trail	Closure of the Scioto Trail at Souder Ave to construct a bike-ped connector across the Scioto River. Marked Detour Provided	39.965229, -83.022291	Until August 2024	Columbus, Franklin County
Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath Trail	OPEN WEEKENDS ONLY. A 1.5 mile trail section closed weekdays for a riverbank stabilization project.	41.335484, -81.587853	Until May 3 Closed Mon 5AM to Fri 6PM	Brecksville Reservation, Cuyahoga County
Ohio & Erie Canal Towpath Trail	Irishtown Bend Stabilization Project. Irishtown Bend, Follow the ROUTE CHANGE on the alerts page	41.488331, -81.704332	Sept '23 through Sept '25	Cleveland, Cuyahoga County

There are several ways to find our trail alerts:

On the Interactive Map layer, on the Home Page slider, on the top menu under "Maps",

On the "Plan Your Trip" page and in the footer of our website.

Direct Links: ohioerietrail.org/alerts ohioerietrail.org/interactive-map